

International Festival of Performance Art October 19-29, 2006

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

www.7a-11d.ca

Festival hotline: 416-822-3219

Experience provocative performance art from local favourites, national treasures and international visiting artists at the 6th 7a*11d Festival.

New performance art works, workshops, "d2d = direct to documentation" video screenings, "Do Me!" (performance instruction offerings from the likes of Joey Scaggs, Martin Creed and Linda Montano performed by local artists and students from OCAD, the University of Toronto and York University), durational performance events, outdoor projections, panel discussions, parties...

The 6th 7a*11d Festival of Performance Art brings to Toronto over 20 established and emerging contemporary performance artists from across Canada as well as Japan, Singapore, Indonesia, the Philippines, Poland, Bulgaria, Finland, Germany, the UK and the US.

New work performed by:

Tejpal S. Ajji, Ed Johnson, Nahed Mansour (Toronto), Les Fermières Obsédées (QC), Rita McKeough (NS), anti-cool (Japan), Glyn Davies-Marshall (UK), Racquel de Loyola (Philippines), Dariusz Fodczuk (Poland), Rose Hill (USA), Herma Wittstock (Germany) and many more....

Since the first festival in 1997, 7a*11d has been bringing to Toronto the famous, the not-so-famous and the soon to be renowned of the performance art scene from around the world including Governor General award winner Istvan Kantor, Winnipeg's darling Daniel Barrow, New York's activist preacher Reverend Billy, Esther Ferrer, Melati Suroydarmo (APG group), James Luna, William Pope.L, and many more....

7a*11d's main festival venue is Xpace (303 Augusta Ave. in Kensington Market). Day events and satellite programming at the Toronto Free Gallery, OCAD and Trinity Bellwoods Park.

All events PWYC. Suggested donation for evening programs & Opening Night Party is $5.

7a*11d festival organizers & participating artists available for interviews (in French and English), please contact:

Shannon Cochrane: shannon.cochrane@sympatico.ca (416-556-0329)

Adam Herst: adamherst@sympatico.ca (416-652-7071)